Mary Cone Pitkin was born in Brunswick, Medina county, Ohio, on Nov. 28, 1845. She was the daughter of Richard S. and Delight C. Pitkin, who moved from New York state in 1841.

Mary C. Pitkin received her education in the common school of Brunswick and lived here with her parents until March 31, 1864, when she was united in marriage to Harlan P. Chapman of North Eaton township, Lorain county, Ohio, and at whose natal home they commenced their first house keeping. Here they lived until 1867, then moved to Brunswick, living there three years.

Aside from four years spent in Elyria while Mr. Chapman was county treasurer, Mrs. Chapman had lived in Laporte about forty years. Her world was her home, where it was her love to labor for the comforts and pleasure of her husband, children and grandchildren. Her heartache in the long nine months of confinement to her bed was the thought of separation from her loved ones. All other sufferings were borne without complaint until her soul departed for the spirit land on Feb. 15, 1917.

Those who are left behind of the immediate relatives to grieve and sore are her husband, H. P. Chapman, two sons, Eric D., and Otto B., and one daughter, Mrs. Oleo E. Gilis and one brother, Geo. E. Pitkin of Brunswick. For almost 53 years Mrs. Chapman made her home a lovely place for her family and one never to be forgotten.

Mrs. Perry Freese was in Canal Fulton for a few days to see her daughter, Mrs. Edith Bagan, who is in very poor health.

While coming home from her school at Independence last Friday evening, Vere Chidsey stopped at her sister's, Mrs. Stella Charlton's in Cleveland and Saturday morning it was discovered she had the measles. She is staying there, as her father or mother have never had them and the father is in bed with a broken leg.

Harold, Barber, who has been working in Medina with Levett & Waters, was thrown from a scaffold Wednesday morning and fell across a cement block casing or form, breaking his hip. Herbert Waite took him to the German hospital in Cleveland.

Thursday morning they were to operate on him by inserting silver plates to connect the bones, as it was a bad break.

John Baloon has been very sick but is a little better.

WEYMOUTH

For some reason or other there was no particular demonstration made on the twenty-fifth marriage anniversary of County Commissioner-elect C. H. Scanlon and wife, which was Feb. 23 of last year. But the date was not overlooked on the twenty-sixth anniversary and last Friday evening 50 or more friends swooped into the Scanlon home and took the quarter-century bride and groom completely by surprise. While the Scanlon larder is known to be always well supplied, the neighbors and friends didn't want to encroach too heavily upon it or place the family at a possible disadvantage, so they brought a goodly supply of toothsome edibles, with which the Weymouth community abounds. Music and games contributed to the evening's entertainment and Mr. and Mrs. Scanlon were presented with a substantial silver collection, Mr. A. D. Thompson, in behalf of the friends, making the presentation speech in a very creditable and happy manner, to which Mr. Scanlon feelingly responded.
